SCOE Update	No Liaison present, brief update from Melinda based on a phone conversation with Nathan Fairchild. Judy Flores and Nathan Fairchild have read the BAER Report in full and both feel that it may be a bit extreme in its treatment of the Campus. Instead of looking for hazards, they are now looking for evidence of safety. It has been determined that the Cafeteria, Naturalist Cabin, and Cabins 17 and 18 are likely unsafe due to proximity to the creeks. But overall the discussion seems much more positive regarding the old site and the possibilities it holds for the future. To rebuild a camp from scratch at a new site, the estimate is $13 million. Domokur Architecture has expertise to in building camps and Nathan mentioned seeking grant funding ($1,300) from the Rancheria to get them on board as a consultant.
WNRA Update	No Liaison present, brief update from Melinda. Superintendent Hoines plans to attend SCOE Board Meeting in April

On-going Business
Cascade-Union and Buckeye School of the Arts Funding	Buckeye has raised $9,885 of $12,750. Has had a difficult time fundraising this year due to weather related cancellations of planned fundraisers. Melinda made the suggestion to submit grant request paperwork to the Shasta Regional Community Fund's Carr Fire Disaster Relief Fund to seek the remaining $2,865 and see where it goes. If it is not accepted, then Board will consider donating the money ourselves. Unclear how Cascade-Union is doing. Melinda has made inquiries but has not yet received word back. Will keep the Board posted.
Sweatshirt sales and Tie Dye Extravaganza	California Street Labs 4/27/19. Successful test event at the California Street Labs on 3/23/19 got a good strategy and plan laid out for the event on 4/27. Kathy suggested the idea of changing the venue of the event to Oak Bottom to coincide with the grand reopening ceremony on the same day. After a brief discussion it was determined that a plan was already in place with the California Street Labs and should be stuck to. Melinda made a motion to order a Square Mag Strip and Chip reader, Ted seconded. Motion passed. This will allow for walk up purchases of Tshirts at the Whole Earth and Watershed Festival and at the event.
